J. Osborn on the same terms. After an umber of motions and amendments had been proposed and voted on, a motion pre-vailed to elect by ballot, and Messrs. Bell and Martindell were appointed tellers. The vote resulted McFarland 11, Osborn 7. Mr. McFariand was called upon and gracefully thanked the board for the honor it had conferred upon him. The board then adjourned.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES.

tions at the Springfield The James O'Neill and his excellent company who are to be at the Grand tonight, have arrived and are stopping at the Arcade. The advance sale shows that he will be welcomed by a large audience tonight at the Grand in "Monte Crists." The Chieses. The advance sale shows that he will be the Grand in "Monte Cristo." The Chicago Inter Ocean speaks as follows:

Inter Ocean speaks as follows:

Mr. O'Nelli's impersonation of the character of Edmond Dantes and the Count of Monte Cristo is a fine piece of work. Ardent in youthful love, hearty and sincere in manly quality, full of tendemess and pathos of periods of suffering and grief, calm, dignified and courageous in the episode where prkl. and death are in the trial. Secure your seats at Harris's cigar store before the doors open and avoid the rush. FREDERIC BEYTON, AT THE GRAND. Frederic Bryton and his company will be at the Grand on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week and present "Forgiven." He played all last week at Haviin's theater, Cincinnati, to crowded houses and had "Dixie" against him at the Grand. Read what the Enquirer says:

HI HENRY'S MINSTRELS.

Probably few better minstrel parties have ever visited Springfield than the above con pany, though many a larger one has. This party consists of twenty-five carefully selected members, and each member is an ar-tist in his line. No company traveling has the magnificent trappings of this party. A first part of silk, satin, velvet and dia representing a cash outlay of $11,000, while the balance of the performance is costumed accordingly. Especial mention can be made of the neat buriesque opera, "The Royal Dilemma," in which the whole comsie was discoursed at intervals on buildings and repairs be instructed to Royal Dilemma," in which the whole competencing in the wigwam the secure necessary gravel for Clifton street kind, and without comparison. They travel in their own special car, one of the most magnificent in America.

Prof. E. K. Crocker and his school of educational Arabian horses will appear at Black's opera house for six nights and two matinees, commencing Monday evening March 7th. This is said to be the mos age. The Pittsburg (Pa.) Disputch, of May 25th, says:

Mr. Burns offered a report in FAVOR OF STEAM HEATING, and recommended that the contract be awarded to Kelley & Co., of Columbus. Mr. Burns moved the adoption of a majority report. Carried. On motion of Mr. Bell the whole matter was referred to the committee on law and contracts, to draw up the necessary papers. Mr. Kearns moved to proceed to elect a superintendent, which was carried. Mr. Morrow moved the superintendent be elected for the balance of this year at $1,800 per year. Mr. Holden moved that it be for the unexpired term of Mr. White. Mr. Burns raised the question whether the board had the water to elect for a longer period than they had in electing a member of the board to a vacancy. The amendment was carried.

Whenever the car door opened or closed the three would involuntarily look that way. And when the train slowed for a station all of them would go out on the platform. The trio got off at the water tank this side of the water tank t man at the police station.
